

Becky Baker

Laugh and learn like you never have before!

Becky Baker brings powerful, life-changing seminars on how to shine like a star in every avenue and area of your life, becoming a mirror image of Christ as you reflect His Glory.

As she speaks, Becky offers her vivid testimony of her decision to follow Christ and His sustaining power and grace through her mountaintops and valleys—including 10 years on the mission field in Belize, a near break-up of her marriage, infertility, parenthood, and teaching in public high schools for 31 years.

She has learned that obedience to God's Word and an intense desire to be like Jesus and follow Him are the absolute keys to real joy and the only way to buffet life's storm.

Becky speaks as an:

- Educator
- Author
- Comedian
- Mother
- Wife
- Growing Child of God

Becky has been a professional comedian for the past 16 years, a high school teacher for 31 years, and a nationally known speaker since 1985. She just completed a TV pilot called, "The Chickilu YaYas".

She has performed for the Boeing Corporation, Teen Challenge, Kaiser Permanente, The Salvation Army, Cubic Corporation, the Crystal Cathedral, KinderCare, Executive Women International, San Diego District Attorney's Office, ServiceMaster, and many more.

Becky lives with her husband Randy in California and has three grown children.

In one of the most fun events you will ever attend, Becky teaches people how to discover the humor in life! She will have your group laughing, singing, and joining in on the humor as she intertwines the joy in life with a more complete understanding of the marvelous character of God and our relationship to Him.

Becky Baker is one vivacious, dynamic speaker! A great sense of humor, and intensely responsive to her audience." Dr. Joey Healy, Chapman University

"Listen to what Becky has to say. It will change your life as it has mine." Karen Romar, Pacific Imports.

"Highly recommended! We would love to share the joy and all the fun that Bessie and Beulah gave to us here at 3M Brownwood, TX. If you are looking for a couple of really funny, cool, loved by the crowd type entertainers then we would highly recommend Bessie and Beulah. We will never forget all the fun and the memories they have given to so many to carry on forever." 3M Service Award Committee

Reflecting Joy!

Using God's Word and our relationship with Him to live a life full of joy, free from worry, and reflective of His love!

Becky's Hot Topics

Our Bratas In Life

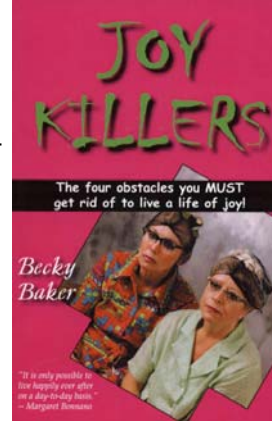

Brata is a Creole word for unmerited surprise gift or extra bonus. Little did Becky realize when she was growing up in the little Caribbean country of Belize how God would use that word to show His grace when her world came crashing down around her 20 years later. This is her very touching and humorous account of life as a missionary kid (MK), her near loss of husband and child, and her realization that Jesus Christ is our all-sufficiency and everything else He gives us are bratas.

Laughter, God's Best Medicine

A very funny look at life's most comical moments, dotted with stories from the lives of the well known, as well as Becky's own personal situations. She has come to believe that God wants us to keep everything in perspective—including the ability to laugh at oneself—and that "the merry heart does good, like a medicine".

Choosing Sovereign Joy

This is an exciting look at the blessings that come from a life lived in the "greater joy" that God promises in Psalm 4:7. In this presentation Becky defines sovereign joy, explains how to cultivate it, and identifies the four sabotaging joy-killers. She teaches through both Scripture and her personal experience how to see the sovereign hand of God in events in our lives to bring us joy.

The Bessie & Beulah Show

There has never been a show like the Bessie & Beulah show! It is one hour of the most raucous, fun interaction since Mama on the Carol Burnett show. Bessie & Beulah have audiences standing, singing, dancing, and howling at their "stress-relievers", everything from movies to money to mothers-in-law. These feisty, malaproping ladies even have the chief executives of companies up on stage doing a rap to Men in Black. The startlingly ending, where Bessie & Beulah transform themselves into the lovely Becky and Katie, always generates delighted gasps of surprise.

Becky Baker and Katie Blackburn have been performing the Bessie & Beulah show nationwide for the past 16 years. They have shared the platform with Barbara Bush, Paul Harvey and Dan Quayle in Tennessee, performed for Boeing Corporation engineers in Los Angeles, and taken their audience through an "autobody experience" at the National Auto Body Congress and Exposition in Dallas. Other clients include Chevrolet, Kaiser Permanente, ServiceMaster, Salvation Army, the San Diego District Attorney's office, Teen Challenge, and Executive Women International.

Becky and Katie have been best friends for 29 years, and came up with the idea through their theater work with Lamb's Players in San Diego and SAK Theatre, performed at Renaissance Faires and Disney's Epcot Center. In addition to the Bessie & Beulah show, they do training seminars on laughter and humor. They recently taped a TV pilot for another project of theirs—a nationally syndicated talk show.

Audiences love participating and laughing at themselves. The result, according to Tricia Chase of Chase Productions, is one of the most clever, funny shows on the road. "I have never known of a female comedy duo, let alone one with such a new and original show," she says. "Your material is perfect for any mixed crowd."
